 Grading system details used on this Transcript of Academic Record

This grading and credit transfer system is used at Udayana University's BIPAS Program. In order to earn credits, students have to participate in weekly lectures, in addition to completing recitations, case studies and quizzes. For one credit, there is a one hour lecture once a week for the duration of the semester. The independent studies consist of various exercises, group work, examination preparation, examinations, workshops and excursions. One academic year corresponds to 36 credits, equivalent to 1500 hours of studying. To graduate with a Bachelor's degree from Udayana University, a student needs 144 Indonesian credits.
