ENTREPRENEURSHIP FOR GLOBAL CHALLENGES

Graduate Course

5 ECTS

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will introduce you to entrepreneurship for global challenges. You will get to know entrepreneurs and discover how they work on innovation and entrepreneurship. You will learn what kind of international opportunities and obstacles entrepreneurs, especially in emerging economies, face when establishing their businesses and acquire practical tools that will enable you to discover opportunities in your environment and use them to make an actual change.

OBJECTIVES

By the end of this course, students should be able:

- Identify global challenges in emerging economies.
- Learn from experienced entrepreneurs' successes and failures.
- Think strategically about interactions with business partners, customers and government authorities.
- Think strategically about the internal management style and business culture.
- Understand opportunities for and barriers to socially responsible entrepreneurship.

LECTURING METHOD

The course will be presented in lecture activities, classroom assignments and discussions, case studies, special topic presentations, and homework. Students will be working primarily based on real-life stories, though additional materials can be assigned from time to time. To understand the topics covered in this course, students must read the supplied online material before class sessions to contribute thoughtfully to the class discussions and exercises.

ACADEMIC RESEARCH

This course includes an academic research paper that must be completed during your semester. It will be based on a topic given by the lecturer and requires comprehensive research by the student. This paper will consist of methodological analysis of the latest literature and be handed in at the end of the semester. The academic research will be included in the final course grade.
