BUSINESS FOUNDATIONS IN A CHANGING WORLD

5 ECTS

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course gives you the terminology, concepts, and frameworks necessary to understand businesses in a changing world, unpack their constituent parts, and build your toolkit for strategy and decision-making. This course introduces basic concepts and frameworks that can be applied across markets at all levels of business. Core value propositions, pitches and hacks, social media skills, competition, and macro-environmental tools are all discussed during the course through real-life stories and experiences.

OBJECTIVES

By the end of this course students should know:

- How to break a company down to its main components and activities.
- What are the current industry trends.
- The basics of industry competitive dynamics.
- How different business functions work and integrate.

LECTURING METHOD

The course will be presented in lecture activities, classroom assignments and discussions, case studies, special topic presentations, and homework. Students will be working primarily based on real-life stories, though additional materials can be assigned from time to time. To understand the topics covered in this course, students must read the supplied online material before class sessions to contribute thoughtfully to the class discussions and exercises.

ASSIGNMENTS

During the semester, you will do several assignments that are mainly focusing on literature reviews on different topics given by the lecturer. The assignments will be included in the course grade at the end of your semester.
