WHY LIVE AND STUDY ABROAD

GET TO KNOW A NEW CULTURE

There is no better way of getting to know a new country or culture than by living in it for an extended period of time. Getting to know another culture will give you a whole new perspective towards your own culture as well.

GAIN NEW SKILLS

Studying abroad gives you the chance to learn new skills. While your studies equip you with the hard skills of your chosen field, adapting to the local culture and learning as much as you can outside the classroom will help you develop the much-needed soft skills required to thrive in a globalized world.

IMPROVE YOUR CAREER PROSPECTS

Knowing a foreign country and culture is a definite asset in the job market of today. Studying abroad teaches you flexibility, language skills, problem-solving skills and intercultural competence, which are all highly valued by employers.

MAKE LIFELONG FRIENDS

Studying abroad is a once-in-a-lifetime experience. Like all experiences, it is best when shared. You will meet students from many different countries who are in the same situation as you: taking a step outside of their comfort zone to explore a new environment. You will also get to meet local students who are eager to show you their country and culture.

LEARN SOMETHING NEW ABOUT YOURSELF

Studying abroad gives you a chance to explore how it is to be truly independent. Often it is only when we leave our familiar environment that we discover who we truly are and what we truly care about.

HOW TO STUDY ABROAD?

WHY?

The diversity in Asia will teach you more than you can ever expect. On top of that, the most powerful economies, most populous nations, most spoken languages, and ever-rising level of higher education make Asia a must-know continent for everyone.

Studying in Asia looks great on your resume, and Asia expertise is a powerful asset in today's and the future job market. Furthermore, it is affordable to live and travel in Asia even without breaking the bank.

DESTINATIONS

Our thoughtfully selected partner universities are located in the most sought-after destinations in Asia. You can choose a bustling metropolis or enjoy more tranquil island destinations according to your wishes.

You can easily expand your international network by studying with local and international students. Simultaneously, you learn a great deal about the most important continent in the world, new cultures, and yourself.

Quick Facts

WEBSITE

Established in 1967

Located in Phuket, Thailand (Five other campuses around Thailand)

35 000 students (3 500 in Phuket)

UNIVERSITY

Prince of Songkla University (PSU) was the first university in southern Thailand and ranks today among the best five universities in the country. With a long history in the field of tourism on the island of Phuket, it is no wonder that PSU provides one of the best academic standards in the field in the whole of Southeast Asia.

STUDIES

Several outstanding programs, researchers, and achievements have made PSU well-known and admired as a leading educational institution across the ASEAN region.

Most international students choose courses from the fields of Business, Management, and Tourism, but plenty of other options remain available.

The international academic background of many of the lecturers makes sure the courses are not only academically rewarding but rather laborious at the same time.

The feedback from international students studying at PSU for one or two semesters remains outstanding year after year.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

PSU is well-known to take very good care of its students.

Numerous extracurricular activities complement the academic experience and give a chance to get to know the local culture and society better. Homestay programs, buddy programs, and charity visits have been a big hit among international students.
